CONTEST CONDITIONS.....What we expect from you:

1. Relax, be yourself and have fun.
2. You understand that the answers on the front of this form and any attached pages will be reviewed by the judging panel and may be considered during the judging process.
3. You will represent Mr. Connecticut Leather, Inc., hereinafter referred to as "the organization" and the Leather Community in a positive light, with dignity and respect for all.
4. You understand that the title Mr. Connecticut Leather 2011 involves a commitment of some time and resources and if selected, you will work with other members of Mr. CT Leather together as a team on various fundraisers and events.
5. You understand that if you are selected as the title winner you will represent the organization and Leather Community in the State of Connecticut during competition at either MAL (Mid-Atlantic Leather) in Washington, DC in January, 2011 or at International Mr. Leather (Chicago, IL) in May of 2011. To be determined by the producers and contestant together.
6. You may be asked to travel during the course of your title year as a representative of the organization and community at fundraisers and events.
7. You will be expected to participate in fundraising ventures of your own with support and assistance from Mr. Connecticut Leather, Inc. and that the proceeds from these benefits can be shared with charitable contributions and your travel expense fund for representing the organization and community.
8. You will be expected to promote good will and understanding throughout the general community at large.
9. As a title holder or runner up, you may be asked to lend your endorsement. You understand that you will not do so without the express permission of the organization and producers.
10. You grant permission to the organization to use your name, title and image.
11. You agree to hold harmless Mr. Connecticut Leather, Inc., the contest organizers and all associated parties in all matters arising from your participation in this and all satellite events.
12. All information supplied by you herein and during the contest interview and judging process is true and correct.
- 13: You will be provided with a Mr. CT Leather sash which belongs to the organization and will be retained by the producers. The Sash will be made available for your use and wear at the appropriate leather events during your title year.
- 14: You will be responsible for purchasing a leather bar vest. The organization will arrange to have your title information applied to this vest for your title year.
15. Your signature below indicates your acceptance of the above expectations, Failure to comply with them may result in the revocation of the awarded title.

GOOD LUCK and HAVE FUN!
